ROUTE MARSHALS

AIDS Walk Shift: Sunday, July 14 from 7 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

No orientation

Get a front-row view along the route and cheer on walkers as they pass by! This important group of volunteers directs the flow of participant traffic and helps keep walkers safe at key intersections along the Walk route. Outgoing, energetic folks with great communication skills are encouraged to take on this role! Route Marshals must be at least 17 years old.

CHECKPOINTS 1-3 (ROUTE)

AIDS Walk Shift: Sunday, July 14 from 8 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Mandatory Orientation: Saturday, July 13 from 12 p.m. to 1 p.m.

Our Checkpoint Volunteers are the friendly people that greet walkers and hand out delicious snacks and beverages at one of three checkpoints along the route. You will help run one of these refreshment stations, direct walkers to services such as restrooms and first aid, and make sure they are having a blast. This volunteer position is great for groups.

ROUTE DELINEATORS

AIDS Walk Shift: Sunday, July 14 from 7 a.m. to 3 p.m.

No Orientation

Must be 18 or older

This crew is a well-oiled machine that assembles and "delineates" the AIDS Walk San Francisco route with cones and caution tape before the Walk starts, and breaks it down once walkers have completed it. This is a great role for those who enjoy being active. Be prepared to get your hands a little dirty!
