

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

Scott Hamilton & Friends Ice Show
at Ford Ice Center Bellevue, Saturday, November 21st

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION FOR PERFORMERS

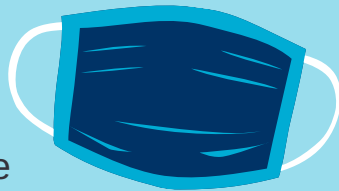

Locker rooms are to be used for changing only. Skaters may not gather in locker rooms.

Skaters should arrive dressed in their first costume. Opening number skaters should wear black pants/leggings/skirts with tights.

Sk8 to Elimin8 Cancer t-shirts will be handed out at morning dress rehearsal on the 21st.

Skaters must take all their belongings with them between rehearsals and show time.

Facial coverings must be worn at all times while off the ice.

Facial coverings may be removed to perform.

Skaters will be asked to help remove small lighting elements positioned on the ice at the end of the show as part of their Champions Lap.

This will be practiced at dress rehearsal

Performers not skating solos may join the audience and watch if they would like!

All skaters should be ready for a Champions Lap at the conclusion of the show.

Following the show, skaters should quickly gather their things and meet their families upstairs.

Thank you for your generous support of CARES and cancer research. We can't wait to celebrate with you!
