AIDS Walk New York Returns to Central Park May 15 with a New Route, and 4-Mile Run

Participants can register for the Walk or Run at ny.aidswalk.net

New York, NY—On Sunday, May 15, AIDS Walk New York will bring together thousands of people to raise millions of dollars for GMHC and other tri-state area HIV and AIDS service organizations. After being held as a virtual event over the past two years due to COVID-19 restrictions, AIDS Walk New York will return to Central Park. Participants will have a choice of a four-mile walk or four-mile run both with a new route entirely through Central Park.

“We are thrilled to be returning to Central Park,” said Kishani C. Moreno, Interim Chief Executive Officer and Chief Operating Officer. “AIDS Walk New York is one of the city’s largest and most diverse community events. It continues to bring together thousands of caring people in a powerful demonstration of compassion and action. It recognizes the important accomplishments we have made over the years, while shining a light on the work we still need to do to end the HIV epidemic.”

The Opening Ceremony, kicking off at 9:15 am, will feature stars, entertainers, elected officials, and many more. Celebrity participants will be announced in the coming days. Upon their return from the route, fundraising participants will be treated to a Post-Walk Dance Party at the Bandshell, along with free HIV testing and community information.

“The vital funds raised will benefit GMHC’s services and programs for people living with and affected by HIV and AIDS,” added Moreno. “In the past two years during the COVID-19 pandemic, there has been a substantial increase of need for groceries, housing, mental health and substance use counseling—and more. GMHC works to address the health disparities including racism, homophobia, transphobia, poverty, stigma, discrimination and lack of access to quality health care, which create barriers in accessing support and care.”

There is no fee to join in the AIDS Walk. Participants are encouraged to raise as much as they can from family, friends, and co-workers. To learn more and to register, visit ny.aidswalk.net.

The event’s presenting sponsor is ViiV Healthcare. Premier Sponsor is Gilead. Grand Sponsor is Mesmerize. Principal Sponsors are Audacy, Barclays, Bloomberg Philanthropies, Druckenmiller Foundation, the Keith Haring Foundation, PepsiCo, and Tito’s Vodka.
