Every year, thousands of children are diagnosed with cancer in the U.S. alone. These children and their families have to deal with incredible challenges. Fortunately, there is an organization fully dedicated to bringing joy back to their lives. And you can help! Join my SunriseWALKS team, (Insert Team Name), as we walk together to raise money for Sunrise Day Camp, the world's only full summer day camp for children with cancer and their siblings. It is offered free of charge and is changing lives by replacing the emotional and financial stress from cancer with carefree summer days filled with fun - sports, games, arts and crafts and new friends. Together, we can raise money to send more children to this amazing day camp and let them have the best summer of their lives. We walk so they can soar!
