We would like to extend an invitation for you to become an official Jonathan's Walk4Friendship 2024 sponsor!

Join us as we launch our thirteenth annual Walk4Friendship on Sunday, January 28th, 2024 at Chaparral Park 1:30 - 4:00 pm. This fun-filled day is comprised of an inspirational opening ceremony, followed by a 3k walk and a post-walk festival.

100% of the money raised for Jonathan's Walk4Friendship will support Friendship Circle's mission of bringing friendship and inclusion into the lives of children who have special needs while also providing respite and support to their families and siblings.

Friendship Circle's unique method pairs local teen volunteers with children who have special needs. Together, the pairs will participate in weekly programs such as home visits, Sunday drop-off programs, Arts & Sports classes, Holiday celebrations, Winter camps, Birthday Bashes and more. These "friendship pairings" create a sense of confidence and community inclusion in the life of the child. And in return, the teen volunteers gain leadership skills, hands on education about special needs and a true sense of social responsibility through the act of selfless giving.

Jonathan was a participant of the Friends at Home program. Together with his buddy, Adam, he spent countless hours enjoying camaraderie, friendship and true acceptance. Their families connected and became fast friends. Their relationship truly reflects what the Friendship Circle is about. In 2010 Jonathan's soul left this world after a short battle with cancer. It is in his memory that we dedicate this walk.

Would you consider becoming a sponsor of Jonathan's Walk?

With your support, we can continue to bring friendship, love, laughter and hope to children & adults with special needs in our community!

Please contact me if you have any questions at (602) 861-1600 or email mendy@fcz.org.

Warm regards,

Rabbi Mendy Levertov
Director

This fun-filled day is comprised of an inspirational opening ceremony, followed by a 3k walk and a post-walk festival.

For 18 years, Friendship Circle has provided individuals with special needs in the greater Phoenix area with the friendship, inclusion, and emotional support that they deserve.
